

Question 5:

With clinical identification algorithms, which questions might help identify and measure medical conditions? (Select all that apply)

What is the source of the diagnosis?

How many diagnoses should be considered?

What procedures and prescription drugs might reliably identify conditions?

What claims or encounter types should be considered?